Named as one of 2010's Dozen Distinctive Destinations by the National Trust for Historic Preservation, Chestnut Hill is proud to celebrate its 26th annual Fall for the Arts Festival on Sunday, October 10th. Staged along cobblestoned Germantown Avenue with a backdrop of turn-of-the-century buildings, the festival setting is unlike any other in the Philadelphia region. Over 125 fine artists and craftsmen will take center stage for the day-long event which attracted over 30,000 festival goers last year. Other activities include live music; art-related activities for children; "A Taste of Chestnut Hill" featuring foods from more than a dozen local restaurants; and multiple art and entertainment venues. We hope you can join us and celebrate Fall for the Arts in Chestnut Hill!

Because of the increasing popularity of our show and the high demand for a limited number of spaces, we strongly encourage you to apply at your earliest convenience. Prior participation in this event is not a guarantee of acceptance this year.
